

Missions Starting Point

The Missionary's Purpose

Key Questions: Why do we send missionaries? Why does missions exist, and why is it important in the life of the church and the individual Christian?

- What is the Great Commission?

- Matthew 28:18–20 ¹⁸And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”
- Mark 16:15–16 ¹⁵And he said to them, “Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. ¹⁶Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.
- Luke 24:46–49 ⁴⁶and said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, ⁴⁷and that repentance for the forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹And behold, I am sending the promise of my Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high.”
- John 20:21–22 ²¹Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you.” ²²And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit.
- Acts 1:8 ⁸But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.”

And the nations will know that I am the LORD, declares the Lord GOD, when through you I vindicate my holiness before their eyes.*

Motivations for Missions

• Positive Motivations for Missions:

- God deserves worship, and there are people around the world who do not rightly worship Him.
- God is supplying His power for the accomplishment of his mission.
 - Acts 1:8 ⁸*But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."*
- Making disciples is a command given to every believer, and it's good for us to obey this command.
 - John 14:15 ¹⁵*"If you love me, you will keep my commandments.*
- Rewards await those who are faithful to sacrifice for the advance of the gospel.
 - Luke 6:38 ³⁸*give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For with the measure you use it will be measured back to you."*
 - 1 Corinthians 3:14–15 ¹⁴*If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. ¹⁵If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire.*

• Negative Motivations for Missions:

- Eternal conscious torment awaits those who remain in their sin.
 - John 3:18 ¹⁸*Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.*

- Mark 9:47–48 ⁴⁷*And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into hell, ⁴⁸‘where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.’*
- Each of us will give an account to God.
 - Romans 14:11–12 ¹¹*for it is written, “As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.” ¹²So then each of us will give an account of himself to God.*
 - 2 Corinthians 5:10 ¹⁰*For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil.*

The Great Commission Personally Applied

- Each believer is called to participate in the spread the gospel.
 - 2 Corinthians 5:16–21 ¹⁶*From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. ¹⁷Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. ¹⁸All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; ¹⁹that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. ²⁰Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. ²¹For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.*
- Each believer is called to sacrifice to for the spread of the gospel.
 - Luke 9:23 ²³*And he said to all, “If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.*
- Each believer has gifts to use to support the spread of the gospel.
 - Romans 12:1–6 ¹*I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. ... ³For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. ⁴For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, ⁵so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. ⁶Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them...*
- Each believer will differ in the specific way they support the spread of the gospel.

- All believers should:
 - Pray for missions.
 - Give toward missions.
 - Go on mission. Two options for faithfulness:
 - Evangelism: Sharing the gospel in our context and culture.
 - Missions: Taking the gospel to another context and culture.
- Believers will differ in:
 - Station – Christ calls disciples to specific stations in and through which they exalt Him on mission. For example, the family: Christians are called to be faithful sons and daughters, brothers and sisters, husbands and wives, and mothers and fathers for the spread of God’s gospel and the display of God’s glory.¹
 - Vocation – Christ gifts people with different skills and abilities that they can use to work, providing funds and platform for the display of God’s glory.
 - Location – Christ calls people to live in a particular place in which the gospel can spread.
 - Nation – Christ calls people to different cultural and ethnic contexts in which they can spread the Gospel. In this case, “nation” does not mean a geo-political entity, but a people group made up of those who share the same language and culture.

The Great Commission Specifically Applied

- A Missionary Defined
 - Definition: A disciple of Jesus set apart by the Holy Spirit, and sent out by the church to cross geographic, cultural, and/or linguistic barriers to make disciples and multiply churches among unreached peoples and places.²
 - While all Christians are called to be “on mission”, we used the word “missionary” to refer to those who’s station, vocation, nation, and location are tailored by God to reach those who have never heard the gospel.
- A Missionary’s Calling
 - Missionaries are “set apart” by the Holy Spirit for the work.
 - Missionaries are internally drawn to the work.
 - Missionaries are externally confirmed for the work.
 - Missionaries are sent by churches to accomplish the work.
 - Missionaries are supported by churches in the work.

- A Dynamic Calling

- Calls to mission can be fluid, based on many factors (More on this in a future lesson).
- Durations:
 - Short Term – 1 week to 2 months.
 - Mid Term – 2 months to 2 years.
 - Long Term – 2 years and beyond.
- Vocations:
 - Business as mission – Paul the tentmaker (Acts 18)
 - Job in-country – Doctor, teacher, etc.
 - Vocational missionary – Vocational minister (1 Timothy 5:17-18; 1 Corinthians 9:7-11)
 - Hybrid models

Lesson Summary

- God has chosen to glorify himself by redeeming a people for himself.
- God has chosen to redeem a people for himself through disciples of Jesus Christ spreading the gospel.
- Because there are those who've not yet heard the gospel, there are lost people who are not glorifying God and are thus destined for an eternal hell.
- While all are called to participate on mission through prayer, financial support, using gifts, and sharing the gospel, some are called to cross cultural and linguistic barriers to take the gospel those who've never heard it.
- We broadly use the word "missionary" and the term "missions" to describe this specific calling and endeavor.
- Individuals and churches should care about missions because the accomplishment of the great commission is the purpose for all the redeemed in Christ before Christ's second coming.

And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.
